Web design principles summary quiz

TOTAL POINTS 10

1. Important things to consider in your design are:(select all that apply) `1 point`

   ☑ How difficult is it to learn?

   ☑ Who is using your site?

   ☑ Does it lay out well on different browsers?

   ☑ Does it lay out well on different devices?

2. Responsive design means `1 point`

   ○ A website with efficient technical support

   ⦿ A website which adapts to different screen sizes

   ○ A website which responds quickly to user input

   ○ A website that answers all the questions a user has

3. Which of the following are types of navigation for websites? (select all that apply) `1 point`

   ☑ Global

   ☑ Hierarchical

   ☐ Natural

   ☑ Local

4. The most important areas of the screen are: (select all that apply) `1 point`

   ☑ The left

   ☑ The right

   ☑ The top

   ☐ The bottom

5. Accessible sites have:(select all that apply) `1 point`

   ☑ Been tested with the CSS rules switched off

   ☐ Permanently large fonts

   ☑ Semantic HTML

   ☑ alt text in the images

6. Which of the following fit into the cognition/ evidence based approach? (select all that apply) `1 point`

   ☑ Telling a user where they are

   ☑ Telling a user where they can go

   ☑ Presenting information to the user as clearly as possible

   ☑ Using eye tracking studies to inform the layout

7. Which two of the following are user centred questions (as opposed to cognitive, evidence based questions)? (select all that apply)   1 point

   ☑ Is red text on a black background difficult to read?

   ☑ What do the users want?

   ☑ Who are the users?

   ☑ How do the users move their eyes over a page?

8. Which of the following comes first in both user centred design and evidence based design approaches?   1 point

   ◉ User experience

   ◯ The HTML code

   ◯ The home page

   ◯ The CSS code

9. Which of the following are good design principles?   1 point

   ◯ Show as much information as possible so every possible user can see the information they want.

   ◉ Show only the information that the user group you have identified for your site is likely to want to see.

   ◯ Use as many colours as possible to make the site exciting.

   ◯ Make it look the same on all devices

10. Which of the following are bad design principles? (select all that apply)   1 point

   ☑ Invite users into your site by displaying as much interesting information as possible.

   ☐ Use colours for titles, with different colours for different titles.

   ☑ Always use background colours

   ☐ Vary the text size to stop the site from being boring

Saving...   Submit